

Anderson University RUF presents...

The First Annual Bible Read-a-thon

WHAT IS IT ?

A Bible Read-a-thon is a gathering of people that have raised support for the ministry of RUF through reading the Bible. Each person participating is assigned a large portion of scripture to read. All the readers are doing so simultaneously, so that the entire Bible will be read in only a few hours.

WHEN IS IT ?

Friday, November 13th, 2009
Reading begins @ 6:30 pm

WHERE IS IT ?

Location - Hunt Chapel on Anderson University Campus

WHY PARTICIPATE IN IT ?

If you would like to be a reader you get to read major sections of the Bible all at once. You also get the opportunity to support AU RUF which is fully supported by those who partner with us in ministry! There is an awesome Thank You package for all participants raising $500 and an additional $150 cash to the student raising the most support! (All gifts are tax deductible and a receipt will be mailed to those who support you in reading!)

WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO?

You commit to providing 15 names and address to mail an event flyer and personalized support letter to (we provide the letter... you don't even have to write it and we will mail it too!). You follow up one week later with a call and make sure they received the letter and then you participate in the Bible Read-a-thon which is concluded with a dessert / game night... that's it! Sign up to participate and then bring your names and address to one of the following meetings:

September 30, Wed. 8-8:30 in Johnson Hall OR October 5, Mon. 5-5:30 in Sullivan
